

SENATE JOURNAL
ELEVENTH DAY
MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m., with President R. Lane Beattie presiding.

Roll Call– All Senators present.

Prayer – Rabbi Frederick L. Wenger, Congregation Kol Ami.

On motion of Senator Tanner, the Senate voted to have the prayer of Rabbi Wenger spread upon the pages of the Senate Journal.

PRAYER BY RABBI FREDERICK L. WENGER

Thank you very much Mr. President for those high words of praise for Michelle and myself. I would like to maybe direct our thoughts before we pray. Sometimes it is assumed that when someone stands to lead you in prayer, that person is a performer and you are an audience and that makes, of course, the almighty a prompter of sorts. I would like to suggest that those priorities are wrong. I would like to suggest that rather, the person who leads you in prayer regardless of the tradition they stem from, is simply in the role of a prompter and that makes the people who are invited to pray performers, and we all know who the audience is. Please put in a performance worthy of your audience, God is quite demanding. It says in the book of proverbs “where there are no vision, the people perish” and so we ask the blessing of vision upon our state and especially on its Senate. Teach all of its members the insights of your sacred teaching. That they may administer all affairs of our state family, that peace and security happiness and prosperity justice and freedom may ever abide in our midst. Bless all the inhabitant of Utah with your spirit, so that citizens of all creeds and races will form a common bond in true brotherhood, to banish all hatred and bigotry and to safeguard the ideals and the free institutions which are our nations pride and glory. May we never ask the lord of the universe to come down to fight our wars or to make our peace or to build our house like a man with magic on his sleeve to do for us what we will not do for ourselves. Only this and this would be enough. May this sacred presence grow within us and may sacred words move our hands. Helping us to build our state into a bustling place of commerce, of healing, of learning and of worship. So that all of us will be able to say with pride, that we make our homes here in the best place on earth. Trying to make it even better even dustier, even holier. That there be no good hope among us that is not a command. That there be no prayer among us that does not ask to become a deed. That there be no promise among us unless it be kept by us. May Utah become a place where every person matters. So shall our state so rich in beginnings grow mature in wisdom, ripe in understanding helping us to build a parable kingdom here on this war torn earth. Till we pause that each of us can offer up, this our own prayers in our own special and unique way for the source of all prayer. Praised are you eternal God, ruler of the universe who has kept us alive preserved us, and brought us to this sacred time. Amen.
